

Ignacio Amézaga

2009-05-07

Senior Executive with more than twenty years of managerial experience in various sectors and countries in the areas of financial management and operations, with a clear focus to results. Has spent them 10 years consulting strategic (where he was Director of finance and operations for southern Europe and Arthur D. Little Latin America).

Ignacio has designed and participated in restructuring, company and processes reorganization, reporting, internationalization plan, strategic plans, set up of subsidiaries and “services clusters”.

Previously he worked as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) both Spain as abroad in multinational companies as Unisys, Aegis Group, Carat Group and Asea Brown Boveri (ABB).

In Bridgedworld he specializes in Restructuring and Corporate Reorganizations, Services, Corporate Governance, Consulting □ Advisories and ICT.

Ignacio is B.A. of Business Administration and Economics by ICADE, Postgraduate in Business Administration by IESE, Master of Tax and International Tax Planning by the C.E.F. and Advance Diploma in Corporate Finance by. He speaks fluently Spanish, English and Portuguese.